

“Whereas the CSI Congregation of Hudson Valley moved into the former building of St. Mary’s Episcopal Church, Scarborough in November 2015; whereas the Church of South India and the Episcopal Church of the United States are both members of the worldwide Anglican Communion; whereas the CSI Congregation of Hudson Valley and the Episcopal Diocese of New York enjoy strong bonds of fellowship; and whereas the leadership of the CSI Congregation has expressed its desire that the Congregation become a parish of the Episcopal Diocese of New York in union with Convention in 2019;

Resolved that the 2018 Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of New York seat the Pastor, the Secretary and the Treasurer of the CSI Congregation of Hudson Valley – The Rev. Pretheesh Babu Kurian, Mr. Kurien T. Oommen and Mrs. Daisy Philip – as honored guests with the right to address Convention.”
